Mr. Gray of Indiana, who gets the Democratic appointment as Minister to Mexico, used to be a stalwart of stalwarts in the Republican party. On one occasion he locked the doors of the Indiana Senate to confine the Democratic members and compelled a quorum for the passage of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution.

THE DECEITFUL WAY.

Frankfort Roundabout.—After April 1st the convicts will be kept at the cost of about $9,000 a month to the state, which is a heavy expense for supporting a Governor who is made up of spleen, egotism and arrogance, void of all the common sense and business qualifications that ordinary mortals sometimes have.

Ohio gave Cleveland one electoral vote and Cleveland has given Ohio one office by appointing Micky Shea of Toledo his Private Messenger at $1,200 a year. This squares the account between the administration and the Backus Democracy, with the single exception that the "Brigadier Commanding," who gave Grover the whole electoral vote of the state by telegraph, is still out the price of his prepaid telegram.

LOVES HIS ENEMIES.

Cottingham Commonweal.—Love for his enemies and kindly feeling for those who have despitely used him has been evidenced more than once in President Cleveland's appointments; and a slight tendency to ignore faithful friends of the past has been shown by his pushing aside, postponing or overruling their petitions for place.

Mr. Cleveland has had no warmer adherent than James A. McKenzie, whose eloquence has sounded his praise outside and inside convention hall; who got himself insulted at Louisville for Grover's sake; who painted the rainbow a brighter hue by his eloquent panegyric to the charms of Frances.

Mr. Cleveland has had no bitterer enemy inside his party ranks than Jo C. S. Blackburn, unless it was his brother Jim. No man was ever better abused by inimitable invective than Mr. Cleveland by the Blackburn eloquence inside and outside convention halls.

Jo Blackburn insulted Jim McKenzie from the rostrum at Louisville on Grover Cleveland's account within the period of statute limitation.

Jim Blackburn is made Marshal of Kentucky with scarcely the semblance of an effort on his part over active and able Democrats strongly backed; while Jim McKenzie sits in the chill of the ante chamber an applicant for well earned recognition, his warm heart growing sick with hope deferred.

This is merely a character sketch in charcoal illustrative alike of Judge Jim Jewell's famous aphorism and an anomaly in human nature, and it is to be taken as entirely and absolutely unpersonal.

ABRAHAM ROSENTHAL, boot and shoe manufacturer, failed at Cincinnati for $50,000, with $40,000 assets.

DUKE WATSON dropped a chunk of male in the Postoffice yesterday without putting one of Uncle Sam's porous plasters on it.

DR. A. W. JOHNSTONE of Cincinnati was here last night in attendance on Mrs. W. H. Means. She is reported much better this morning.

THE Ohio Legislature believes in keeping people out of the lunatic asylums. It has just passed a bill laying a tax of $300 on wholesale dealers in cigarettes and $100 on the fellow who retails them. The vote stood 71 to 1.

Pile's Pile's!

Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure blind, bleeding and itching piles when all other ointments have failed. Hon. Judge W. P. Coons, Mayville, Ky., says: "I have suffered for years with itching piles, and have used many remedies. I have used Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment and been cured, while every other remedy has failed." Every box is warranted. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, fifty cents and $1 per box. WILLIAMS' MED. CO., Prop., Cleveland, O.

CHRISTOPHER GRIMES, aged 63, a citizen of the Eastern part of this county, was taken to the asylum at Anchorage this morning by Sheriff Jefferson, having been adjudged of unsound mind by Judge Plister's Court yesterday. Deputy County Clerk T. D. Slattery accompanied them.

Why Not Use the Best?

"There are numerous preparations in the market for coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough. Among them we wish to call your special attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is sold on its merits. This assertion is warranted by its sales, which surpass any preparation of a similar nature. I hear nothing but praise from customers who have used it." The above is what Eugene P. Unangut, the leading druggist of Bethlehem, Pa., says in a circular to his customers. He has sold at retail over one thousand bottles of this remedy during the past year, and knows it to be without an equal. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use is what makes it popular. For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

THE Knights Templars of Richmond will confer the Red Cross and K. T. Orders next Wednesday and Thursday, and will have a public installation of officers and a banquet. W. LaRue Thomas, Deputy Grand Commander of the Grand Encampment U. S., has been invited to confer the Order, and will be accompanied by several members of Mayville Commandery. THE boss carpenters, contractors and boss stone workmen, plasterers, painters, plumbers and dealers in tin and building hardware at Lexington have formed a Builders' Exchange for the purpose of protecting themselves against the various influences that are at work against them. Persons in position to know say this will be a heavy blow at the Union carpenters who propose to strike the first of May unless contractors concede their demands.

Ran Over a Baby.

A child 19 months old was struck by a freight train on the C. and O. near Limeville on Wednesday morning last, while it was crawling across the track, unconscious of danger.

The little one's parents live in an old cabin near the track, and the mother had crossed the road to the river bank, leaving the baby and another child 3 years old. They were in the net of following her when the accident occurred. The engineer did not see the baby until close upon it. He ran over the engine to the front of the pilot and endeavored to reach the child with his hands, but there being no foothold, his efforts were futile.

The child was struck by the pilot. The entire train passed over, it lying between the ties, out of harm's way but for the first blow. One of the little hands was cut off and, though still alive at last accounts, the death of the innocent seemed inevitable. The name was not learned.

SAFETY AND COMFORT.

INFORMATION FOR WORLD'S FAIR VISITORS TO CHICAGO.

How to Secure Accommodations—World's Fair Hotel and Boarding Bureau—T. A. Garrigan, General Agent, and W. L. Thomas, Local Agent.

For the succeeding six months from May let, the objective point of interest of the civilized world will be the great Columbian Exposition at Chicago. Every American citizen who can possibly afford to do so will be in attendance at some time or other during the progress of the fair.

The entire country is being flooded with literature offering information as to how and where accommodations may be secured in advance through various agencies organized for the purpose of aiding persons, unfamiliar with Chicago, to obtain suitable lodging and boarding places while in the city. Some of these agencies or associations have been exposed by the press as gigantic frauds, entirely unworthy of the confidence of the people, their only object being to secure a few dollars in advance from the unsuspecting prospective fair visitors.

Some of these schemes, however, are absolutely trustworthy, prominent among the ultra-respectable and reliable ones being the World's Fair Hotel and Boarding Bureau, organized and incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois by bankers, capitalists, railroad officials and hotel men of wide experience. This Bureau has the endorsement of the General Passenger Agents of all the railroads centering in Chicago. Accommodations for 40,000 people have been secured in what is known as the South Side of the city in the leading transient and family hotels and first-class private residences, a great number of which are within a short distance of the Fair Grounds. The business of the Bureau will be conducted as one vast hotel and the boarding and lodging accommodations will be first-class and satisfactory to everyone.

A complete proof of the legitimacy and trustworthiness of this enterprise is the fact that Thomas A. Garrigan has been appointed the General Agent of the Bureau for Northern Kentucky and West Virginia. Mr. Garrigan has long been Traveling Passenger Agent for the O. and M. in this section and is widely and favorably known throughout the entire Ohio Valley. Mr. Garrigan is a railroad man of vast experience and is a gentleman of unquestioned integrity. He is affable and courteous at all times and an admirable person with whom to transact business. These gentlemen and ladies from this vicinity who made the pilgrimage to Denver and Salt Lake City last summer and traveled for over 6,000 miles under the personal direction and supervision of Mr. Garrigan will bear testimony to his worth and capability. His headquarters will be at Huntington. The Mayville agent of the Bureau is W. LaRue Thomas, well and favorably known in this city. The association of both Mr. Garrigan and Mr. Thomas with the enterprise is a perfect guarantee of good faith.

The plan in detail of the Bureau is as follows:

A contract has been adopted which is designated "the star contract," first and second grade. This contract is issued, upon payment of $5 before you leave your home, by the agent of the Bureau in your locality; and is available at any time during the continuance of the fair—May 1st to November 1st, 1893, without notice. This insures your protection and the certainty of good accommodations through the Bureau on arrival in Chicago. You will be met on the train of the railways terminating in Chicago by an intelligent and competent agent of the Bureau who will be known by the uniform and badge of the Bureau. This agent, upon payment of $27 additional, will take up your contract, assign you to your room, furnish such information as you may desire and deliver tickets for the outside entertainments as are provided for in the contract. It may be here stated that this Bureau is the only one recognized by the railways, it having the exclusive right of placing uniformed agents on through trains entering Chicago.

The star contract provides: Good accommodations, room and board (not more than two in a room) in a transient or family hotel, select boarding or private house in the city of Chicago for six consecutive days during the World's Fair; transportation of baggage from depot to house to which you are assigned; six admissions to the World's Columbian Exposition; admission to "Spectatorium," the celebration of the great discovery, the dramatic triumph of the nineteenth century—orchestra 150 pieces, chorus 800 voices; a round trip pleasure excursion on Lake Michigan; a visit to Lincoln Park, the finest in America, to the Lincoln and Grant Monuments, Conservatory and Zoological Gardens; admission to "Spiral Tower," "Sliding Railway," "Street in Cairo," "Street in Constantinople," "Chinese Village" and "Malay Village;" admission to Moorish Palace containing one hundred figures; a palm garden, the original guillotine of the French Revolution and many oriental curiosities; admission to famous Arctic whaling ship Progress, built in 1841, fully equipped, containing the finest collection of marine curiosities ever exhibited; a "World's Columbian Exposition Handbook," a handsome embossed souvenir.

For second-grade accommodations room and board, on the above contract $22 additional will be payable on arrival in Chicago, at option of holder. The main difference in the first and second grade accommodations is in location, the second grade not being in as convenient reaching distance of the Fair Grounds. Parties desiring to retain their rooms longer than the six days called for in the contract may do so by notifying, two days before expiration of contract, the World's Fair Hotel and Boarding Bureau at their general offices in Chicago.

THE LEDGER takes pleasure in recommending Mr. Garrigan, Mr. Thomas and the World's Fair Hotel and Boarding Bureau.

MAHE DECCA will close the season of "Pops" at Cincinnati next Sunday.

JUDGE RICKS.

He is Busily Engaged in Preparing His Decision.

The Ann Arbor Cases Attracting Widespread Interest.

The Judge Thinks a Stupendous Strike Was Probably Averted—He Made a Similar Order Once Before—A Much Desired Correction is Made.

CLEVELAND, O., March 31.—Judge Ricks of the United States court is home from Toledo and is busily engaged in preparing his forthcoming decision in the contempt cases of the Shore engineers and first will deliver at 9 o'clock.

Judge Ricks said that preparing the decision against Chief Arthur be delivered by him.

"Of course," said he, "ing about the decision. The matter has caused interest, and in Toledo was filled with railroad ing every hour of the day."

"If it is sustaine attract some attention."

In a conversation through the telephone some nights ago I w made to say that the railroad men a Toledo virtually had the heart taken out of them. What I said was merely that the railroad men there were quiet and did not seem inclined to continue the strike. The matter was of no consequence except that it was a 'cor clusion.'"

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The condition of the treasury continues to show a gradual, though very slight improvement, and it is probable that it will show a slightly larger balance at the end of the month than when Secretary Carlisle took hold. Notwithstanding the probability of a revision of the tariff next autumn, the customs receipts continue to increase, and are quite a little in excess of the estimates made by Secretary Foster. They will be nearly $4,000,000 larger this month than during March, 1892.

The Heads Are Failing.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell's ax was swung with vigor Thursday. He appointed 188 fourth class postmasters and of that number 85 were to fill vacancies caused by removals. The largest number appointed from any state was 45 in Indiana, which involved 11 removals. In Kentucky there were 24 appointments and 6 removals.

Typewriter Companies' Trusts.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The Continental Trust Co., of New York, has in hand the business of effecting a consolidation of six of the greatest typewriter companies in this country on a basis of $20,000,000 capitalization.
